BURLEY & ASSOCIATES FEATURED ON TALK SHOW

Gaithersburg, MD – July 14, 2006 – Burley & Associates, Inc, a mergers and acquisitions firm specializing in small and mid-size companies, announced today that Lorette Farris, Burley's Director of Small Business Development, will be featured as an expert guest on Smart Business on WTNT AM570 in Washington, DC. The show airs on Saturday, July 15th from 8am – 9am EST.

Smart Business is a weekly radio show hosted by the Exit Planning Group. As an expert in business acquisitions, Ms. Farris will speak on topics relating to the acquisition of businesses with less than $5 million in revenues.

Ms. Farris is an expert in business acquisitions with additional expertise in corporate securities, acquisition search and management, SEC and NASD compliance, and business development consulting. Ms. Farris' professional background is inclusive of Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Operating Officer and Director of Compliance with two full service investment-banking brokerage firms, overseeing syndicate functions for corporate finance activities, due diligence reviews, deal structuring, negotiating underwriting contracts for private placements, IPOs, and secondary offerings.

Headquartered in Washington DC, Burley & Associates is a full-service mergers and acquisitions firm that operates in the Mid-Atlantic region with a significant focus on small to mid-size technology, government contracting, engineering, business services, health care, and other business-to-business companies. With offices in Maryland and New York, the firm offers services on both the buy-side and sell-side of a transaction, including the sourcing of buyers and sellers, business valuation, transaction negotiation, due diligence management, financing, and other advisory services. Burley & Associates' vision, from its inception, was to pioneer the delivery of large M&A firm services to small and mid-size businesses.
